Fantastic service

Our customer service representative was so fast at getting us responses to our many, many questions. They were flexible with some last minute changes we needed to make, which was much appreciated. The final deliveries looked very professional and hit all our brand guidelines. I would highly recommend this company”.

Excellent service! I was looking to send celebratory gifts to collaborators in Los Angeles and Ukraine – and was having trouble finding a service that would do both, especially at a reasonable price. Gift Baskets Overseas did a great job! A representative walked me through the process and helped me pick the perfect gifts – elegant and within my budget. I’d definitely recommend them!”

Second Time Around and All’s Well!

This is the second batch of international baskets that I ordered through Giftbasketoverseas. Their follow up in insuring that the baskets were delivered is very comforting, especially since they were for our client! I will not hesitate to use them again for my overseas gifts!”

Giftbasketoverseas are awesome!

I had shipments to multiple countries on the same order, the needed to arrive between a specific time window and had to do a couple address updates. Giftbasketoverseas got everything there on time with updates along the way.”
